COOLIDGE VETOES THE McNARY-HAUGEN BILL

DEFIES THREATS OF THE VARIOUS FARM LEADERS

REFUSES TO AFFIX SIGNATURE TO AGRICULTURE AID
MEASURE

WAS CONSISTENTLY OPPOSED BY
COOLIDGE AND CABINET
MEMBERS

Washington, Feb. 25.—While declaring that the faults of the McNary-Haugen bill were so profuse that a book would have to be written to list them, President Coolidge stressed the following in his message vetoing the bill today:

That the bill was unconstitutional.

That it discriminated in favor of cotton, corn, rice, swine, tobacco and wheat growers as against farmers of varied crops.

That the farm board provided in the measure was given complete control over the necessities of life.

That the price fixing angle of the bill would increase prices to the consumer.

That because of high prices consumption would be lowered.

That the bill would create actual "trust" conditions.

That the foundation of this nation was based on the theory of healthy competition and this bill would discourage such activity.

That on the whole the measure was structurally unsound and would bring about financial and agricultural chaos.

Washington, Feb. 25.—(UP)—President Coolidge today vetoed the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill.

The president, defying threats of farm leaders of dire political reprisals, refused to affix his signature to the agriculture aid measure which he and members of his cabinet have consistently opposed.

Passage of the bill by congress placed Mr. Coolidge in the difficult position of having to offend one of two powerful groups—the farmers of the west or the financial interests of the east, the latter practically united in opposition to the measure.

The McNary-Haugen bill provides for a federal farm board of 12 members, at $10,000 a year each, to work with the secretary of agriculture in providing relief for farmers. The measure authorizes appropriation of $250,000,000 as a revolving fund to finance relief measures and $500,000,000 for operating expenses the first year.

When an emergency was found to exist in any basic crop—cotton, wheat, corn, hogs, rice and tobacco—due to a surplus over domestic demands, the board would authorize loan of money from the revolving fund to co-operative organizations of farmers at 4 per cent. The co-operatives would pay farmers "a fair price" for their crops, and withhold from the market enough of the crop to raise the price to the "fair" level. The farmer would be assessed a certain percentage of his crop—the "equalization fee"—which would be paid back into the revolving fund.

The president, in a lengthy veto message, held that the act was unconstitutional, and attached an opinion of the attorney general to this effect.

"Many reasons exist why the McNary-Haugen bill ought not to be approved, but it is impossible to state them without writing a book," said the message. "The most decisive one is that it is not constitutional."

"Surely a real farm relief measure must be just and impartial and open the way for all farmers. Surely it must not contemplate, as this measure inescapably does, that farmers in some regions should be penalized for the benefit of those in other regions. It has been represented that this bill has been unanimously approved by our farmers. Several of our largest farm organizations have refused to support it, and important minorities in the organizations recorded as endorsing it have protested to me against it."

The president, in his closing paragraph, suggested the passage of other farm legislation now before congress, and again reviewed his recommendation that some conservative measure be passed.

The president said pressure for the bill rises primarily from sympathy for the farmers' distress brought

BOMB BURSTS ON DOORSTEP OF BROOKLYN JUDGE

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 25.—A bomb exploded early today on the doorstep of the home of John Palmieri, former city judge, throwing nine persons from their beds and shattering windows of the residence. No one was injured. Palmieri recently received two letters threatening death unless he paid $50,000 to the senders.

BELIEVE ROOM DISINFECTANT PROVED FATAL

POISON GAS BELIEVED TO HAVE KILLED CHICAGO WOMAN AND BABY

HOTEL PROPRIETOR, POLICE BELIEVE, THEN KILLED HIMSELF

Chicago, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Believed to have become frightened after learning he had accidentally killed a woman and her infant son with poison gas, John Rich, hotel proprietor, committed suicide early today.

The woman and the child, Mrs. Nettie Renau and 18-months-old Francis Renau, were found dead in their apartment at the hotel and police said they had been killed by the fumes from a cyanide of potassium disinfectant.

The woman's husband, Howard Renau, returned from work shortly after midnight and found his wife and son dead. He said there were heavy fumes in the apartment.

Police investigated and asked Rich where the fumes might have originated. He advised them he had used cyanide of potassium disinfectant in a room adjoining the Renau apartment yesterday.

About an hour later police were notified that Rich had disappeared. They hastened to the hotel and found him dead in the basement. He had shot himself.

Reconstructing the afternoon's events, police said they were advised Mrs. Renau and her son were asleep when Rich was disinfecting the room and they feel certain the poison gas caused the death of the two.

about by after-war speculation and collapse.

While conceding the huge amount of public opinion favoring the measure, the president expressed belief that the final judgment of American farmers would oppose the McNary-Haugen bill.

"What the farmers want and the American people as a whole will approve is legislation which will not substitute governmental bureaucracy for individual and co-operative initiative, but will facilitate the constructive efforts of the farmers themselves in their own self-governed organizations," the president said.

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Coolidge's veto of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill definitely kills that measure and no effort will be made to pass it over his veto.

Farm bloc leaders of congress privately admitted defeat as soon as the president's message of veto came to the senate.

The political reaction to the veto was strong; farm bloc members contended Mr. Coolidge has forfeited his chance for the presidency or "surrendered to the industrial east so he can run again." Opponents of the measure said he took the only course open to him.

Comment of the various factions follow:

Senator Lenroot, Rep., Wis., opponent of the bill: "I don't see how Mr. Coolidge could have done otherwise. The bill was clearly unconstitutional."

Senator Fess, Rep., Ohio, opponent of the bill: "Mr. Coolidge could not endorse a proposition containing so many economic blunders."

Senator Reed, Rep., Pa., opponent of the bill: "The veto shows wisdom and courage."

Senator Caraway, Dem., Ark., supporter of the bill: "I presume everyone will realize that it is a political veto. The president decided his chance to be renominated would best be served by yielding to the industrial east."

Senator Copeland, Dem., N. Y., proponent of the bill: "He defeated himself."

By H. FRANCIS MISSELWITZ
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Shanghai, Feb. 25.—(7:40 P. M.)—Capture of Sunkiang, 30 miles south of Shanghai, by the Cantonese nationalists, was reported here this afternoon. Efforts to verify the report had been unsuccessful so far.

The Japanese consul general here, who usually has reliable information, announced the capture of Sunkiang. Police and civil authorities here were without information.

No details of fighting at Sunkiang had been received this evening, but Marshal Sun Chang Fang's retreating troops were reported to be straggling into the outskirts of Shanghai. British forces were ready for trouble with defenses fully established. A line of troops was thrown around the foreign settlements.

Sunkiang is the last of the northern strongholds lying between the Cantonese and this city.

French, Japanese and Italian forces were declared to be operating with the British in Shanghai, ready to move into position at the sign of danger. American marines had not landed but were awaiting developments aboard the U. S. warships in the harbor.

London, Feb. 25.—Anti-foreign outbreaks in Hankow, China, where numerous British nationals have remained to protect their property, were feared today, a dispatch from the Daily Mail's correspondent here said. A one-day general strike paralyzed business.

Washington, Feb. 25.—American Minister MacMurray has joined with the Peking diplomatic corps in a curt warning to civil Chinese war generals to respect the neutrality of the Shanghai international settlement. Otherwise foreign authorities will act to protect foreigners there, the state department announced today.

American Consul General Lockhart reported today a "general strike" at Hankow in protest against British troops at Shanghai and allegedly against the northern militarists. The strike completely tied up the port of Hankow, and large demonstrations were being organized.

Apprehension for the safety of 4,000 Americans at Shanghai was increased by the reported defeat of northern armies at Sunkiang and their disorderly retreat towards Shanghai. American marines are being held aboard ship at Shanghai for an emergency.

The warning, after pointing out that the settlement "was established in virtue of regular agreements with the Chinese government" in order to make it possible for foreigners to reside there freely and to carry on their trade, continued:

"In the course of the party strife of which that region has been the scene, the authorities of the international settlement have scrupulously abstained from favoring any of the conflicting parties and in spite of the difficulties of the situation, they are maintaining in that respect the strict neutrality imposed upon them by the nature of the state of affairs thus established."

"The interested diplomatic representatives are thus warranted in expecting on the part of the Chinese authorities the observance of the same rule of conduct and they look to the heads of the armies involved to take all measures necessary to avoid incidents which would constrain the foreign authorities themselves to take the measure indispensable for insuring the safety of the persons and property of their nationals."

The warning referred specifically to the "bombardment the twenty-second of this month," when shells from

She is survived by her mother, two sisters, and four brothers.

Hearne, Texas, Feb. 25.—(UP)—While dozens of fellow workers made frantic efforts to rescue them, five men were burned to death in an oil tank near here late Thursday.

Six men were cleaning out a 55,000 barrel oil tank on the Humble Oil Company tank farm when the fire, believed to have been started by a blow torch, trapped them. Dock Williams escaped through a man hole, which closed and imprisoned his comrades.

Only one body was rescued from the flaming cauldron by the oil workers before the terrific heat blocked them. The other four were cremated.

Families of the doomed men stood by but were powerless to give any aid to the men inside the tank.

The dead are: Clifford Nicholson, 35; Jack Bland, 22; Dan Blair; W. M. Crawford, 44, and Eugene Wright, 23.

CHILE STARTS CRUSHING COMMUNISM AND BOLSHEVISM

Santiago, Chile, Feb. 25.—(UP)—The Chilean government today was reported to have ordered a ship to be ready tomorrow to take on board political and labor leaders arrested and ordered deported in the campaign to crush bolshevism and communism within this country. The ship's destination was unknown.

Chinese gunboats exploded in the foreign quarter.

The state department said the French minister at Peking "is making a similar announcement in respect to the French concession at Shanghai."

The new move by the Peking diplomatic corp to assure observance of neutrality of the Shanghai international settlement, follows a definite proposal made by Secretary of State Kellogg last month to Chinese military commanders asking them to exclude the foreign quarter from the zone of military operations. No reply was received by Kellogg from the warring Chinese generals, although certain informal assurances were reported to have been given American representatives at Peking, Hankow and Shanghai.

Mexico City, Feb. 25.—(UP)—The toll in the wreck of a Tampico-Monterey passenger train near Emanuel Chocoy, 45 miles from Tampico, was reported today at 40 dead and between 70 and 100 injured.

A broken axle on the tender of the train caused the engine, express cars and two coaches to overturn. One Pullman was derailed and damaged.

Bodies of three adults and one child have been taken from the splintered wreckage of wooden cars, and 36 other bodies, pinned in the debris, have been counted. It was reported here.

ATTEMPT TO OUTLAW DOGS' CHASING OF CATS DEFEATED

St. Paul, Feb. 25.—(UP)—An attempt to outlaw dogs' ancient practice of chasing cats was frustrated in the Minnesota legislature Thursday.

The senate committee on dairy products and livestock was on the point of approving a bill which would allow any person to kill a dog found chasing his "domestic animals or poultry," when an astute solon discovered that this might permit the sudden demise of a dog engaged in the pastime of chasing a cat.

The bill was amended to apply to "livestock or poultry" and recommended for passage.

DAVID BAIRD, FORMER U. S. SENATOR, DIES

Camden, N. J., Feb. 25.—(UP)—David Baird, former United States senator from New Jersey, died at his home here today, following a protracted illness. He was 87 years old.

Baird had been a political figure in the state for more than half a century, was a former sheriff of Camden county, and was appointed to the senate by Governor Edge in 1918.

He was also a candidate for the senate in the elections of 1902 and 1907.

BILL STOPPING AUTO RACING IN N. D. DEFEATED

Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 25.—(UP)—A bill which would have prohibited automobile racing in North Dakota met defeat in the house of representatives. A similar bill had been passed by the senate.

Vote was expected today on a sterilization bill. The measure was favorably reported out by the house committee.

Both houses have passed a resolution asking congress to designate a section of country in the bad lands to be set aside as a national park. Governor A. G. Sorlie was expected to affix his signature to the resolution at once.

FORTUNE OF RECLUSE ESTIMATED AT OVER FIVE MILLION

Chicago, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Suffering from pernicious anemia and possibly lack of sustenance, Mrs. Ada Sawyer Garrett, one of Chicago's wealthiest women, is in a local hospital today.

She was found residing in a very obscure and mediocre loop hotel with only a sufficient amount of rather tattered clothing to keep her warm. Her shoes were torn and her chief protection against the cold was a flimsy cape.

Mrs. Garrett's fortune is estimated at between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000.

She is the grand-daughter of Justin Butterfield, Chicago pioneer, and for a time resided in one of the show places of early Chicago. Since that was sold she has resided in several second and third rate hotels, maintaining a penury that is almost unimaginable.

While her husband was living, Mrs. Garrett was considered one of the society belles of Chicago. After his death, however, she forewent society and started living in near-poverty, although her wealth has been constantly increasing.

ANTI-TRUST INQUIRY INTO MOTION PICTURES

Washington, Feb. 25.—(UP)—An anti-trust inquiry into the motion picture organization headed by Will Hays was started today by the justice department following receipt of a letter from Frank J. Rembusch, head of the Motion Picture Theater Owners' association of Indiana, which complained the movie organization under Hays constitutes a trust.

Rembusch alleged the Hays organization has a despotic control over the entire industry, controlling 95 per cent of the industry. Justice officials said their inquiry would not be a "formal investigation."

SUDDEN DESPATCH OF A VESSEL TO NICARAGUA

IN INTERESTS OF ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS, NO
PLEASURE EXPRESSED

UNLESS BRITAIN SHOULD LAND
TROOPS IN NICARAGUA

By LUDWELL DENNY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 25.—The United States government is surprised and displeased over Great Britain's sudden despatch of a warship to Nicaragua.

In the interest of Anglo-American relations, the state department will not express this displeasure formally unless British troops are landed.

Meanwhile officials hope the British naval commander will decide soon after arrival at Corinto on Feb. 26 that the United States is affording "adequate protection to British interests and that his ship is not needed."

Britain's action is interpreted in some quarters here as connected with the negotiations between the Diaz government and the United States for an American protectorate over Nicaragua. Great Britain, with 1,500 citizens there and larger property holdings than the United States, is described as reluctant to accept the protectorate plan.

The immediate effect of Britain's action has been to strengthen the administration's hand here against congressional opposition to its military occupation of Nicaragua.

But uneasiness is apparent over the future effects. The safety of foreigners in Nicaragua cannot be separated altogether from internal politics and intervention, as the Coolidge administration record in Nicaragua shows, according to friends of the administration.

The administration is described as anxious that other foreign nations recognize the United States' ability to protect their legitimate interests without their taking action which might lead to indirect intervention, violating this administration's interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine.

Officials say they are unable to explain the statement in the British notes that absence of American assurances of protection for the British necessitated sending the warship. Secretary Kellogg and Acting Secretary Grew repeat what was pointed out in the American note to Great Britain yesterday that such American protection of British interests was promised and is being provided by the American forces of occupation.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 25.—Further fighting between conservative government troops and insurgent liberals was feared here today.

The British cruiser Colombo, en route from the Caribbean to provide a place of refuge for British nationals, was expected to arrive tomorrow.

Activity of liberal troops near Matagalpa was renewed today, leading to reports that the Sacasa army was preparing to attack that important city. American and other foreigners in the city appealed to U. S. Minister Eberhardt and President Diaz for protection.

General Moncada was reported preparing to move from Matiglas, 30 miles from Matagalpa, toward the latter city, expecting to join a large liberal contingent near there for a joint attack.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The Diaz Nicaraguan government's proposal for American protectorate was brought into the open today for the first time when the Nicaraguan legation here announced details of the proposed "treaty of alliance" between the two countries.

Under the Diaz proposal Nicaragua would be guaranteed, according to President Diaz, "the uninterrupted maintenance of a government adequate for the protection of life, property and individual liberty. The U. S., on the other hand, would be assured of its rights to a Nicaraguan canal and naval base, arranged under the Bryan-Chamorro treaty and would have the right from Nicaragua "to intervene in Nicaragua whenever it might be necessary in order to make effective the guarantees effective above."

The new move by the Peking diplomatic corps to assure observance of neutrality of the Shanghai international settlement, follows a definite proposal made by Secretary of State Kellogg last month to Chinese military commanders asking them to exclude the foreign quarter from the zone of military operations. No reply was received by Kellogg from the warring Chinese generals, although certain informal assurances were reported to have been given American representatives at Peking, Hankow and Shanghai.

BROKEN AXLE ON TENDER DERAILS CARS

BODIES OF THREE ADULTS AND ONE CHILD TAKEN FROM WRECKAGE

36 OTHER BODIES, PINNED IN THE DEBRIS, HAVE BEEN COUNTED

Mexico City, Feb. 25.—(UP)—The toll in the wreck of a Tampico-Monterey passenger train near Emanuel Chocoy, 45 miles from Tampico, was reported today at 40 dead and between 70 and 100 injured.

A broken axle on the tender of the train caused the engine, express cars and two coaches to overturn. One Pullman was derailed and damaged.

Bodies of three adults and one child have been taken from the splintered wreckage of wooden cars, and 36 other bodies, pinned in the debris, have been counted. It was reported here.

ATTEMPT TO OUTLAW DOGS' CHASING OF CATS DEFEATED

St. Paul, Feb. 25.—(UP)—An attempt to outlaw dogs' ancient practice of chasing cats was frustrated in the Minnesota legislature Thursday. The senate committee on dairy products and livestock was on the point of approving a bill which would allow any person to kill a dog found chasing his "domestic animals or poultry," when an astute solon discovered that this might permit the sudden demise of a dog engaged in the pastime of chasing a cat.

The bill was amended to apply to "livestock or poultry" and recommended for passage.

DAVID BAIRD, FORMER U. S. SENATOR, DIES

Camden, N. J., Feb. 25.—(UP)—David Baird, former United States senator from New Jersey, died at his home here today, following a protracted illness. He was 87 years old.

Baird had been a political figure in the state for more than half a century, was a former sheriff of Camden county, and was appointed to the senate by Governor Edge in 1918.

He was also a candidate for the senate in the elections of 1902 and 1907.

BILL STOPPING AUTO RACING IN N. D. DEFEATED

Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 25.—(UP)—A bill which would have prohibited automobile racing in North Dakota met defeat in the house of representatives. A similar bill had been passed by the senate.

Vote was expected today on a sterilization bill. The measure was favorably reported out by the house committee.

Both houses have passed a resolution asking congress to designate a section of country in the bad lands to be set aside as a national park.

Governor A. G. Sorlie was expected to affix his signature to the resolution at once.

PROVIDES BREAD FUND FOR POOR IN HIS WILL

Denver, Colo., Feb. 25.—(UP)—Establishment of a $40,000 bread fund to feed the poor in his native Swiss village, as provided in the will of Joseph Steffes, appeared doubtful today.

Objections filed in county court by a brother, Frederick, and a niece, Bertha Sprenger, contend that Steffes was of unsound mind when he made the unique bequest.

RICH WOMAN FOUND ILL IN OBSCURE HOTEL

MRS. ADA SAWYER GARRETT OF CHICAGO SUFFERING FROM PERNICIOUS ANEMIA

FORTUNE OF RECLUSE ESTIMATED AT OVER FIVE MILLION

Chicago, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Suffering from pernicious anemia and possibly lack of sustenance, Mrs. Ada Sawyer Garrett, one of Chicago's wealthiest women, is in a local hospital today.

She was found residing in a very obscure and mediocre loop hotel with only a sufficient amount of rather tattered clothing to keep her warm. Her shoes were torn and her chief protection against the cold was a flimsy cape.

Mrs. Garrett's fortune is estimated at between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000.

She is the grand-daughter of Justin Butterfield, Chicago pioneer, and for a time resided in one of the show places of early Chicago. Since that was sold she has resided in several second and third rate hotels, maintaining a penury that is almost unimaginable.

While her husband was living, Mrs. Garrett was considered one of the society belles of Chicago. After his death, however, she forewent society and started living in near-poverty, although her wealth has been constantly increasing.

ANTI-TRUST INQUIRY INTO MOTION PICTURES

Washington, Feb. 25.—(UP)—An anti-trust inquiry into the motion picture organization headed by Will Hays was started today by the justice department following receipt of a letter from Frank J. Rembusch, head of the Motion Picture Theater Owners' association of Indiana, which complained the movie organization under Hays constitutes a trust.

Rembusch alleged the Hays organization has a despotic control over the entire industry, controlling 95 per cent of the industry. Justice officials said their inquiry would not be a "formal investigation."

NEW RULING ON PRINCETON MEN DRIVING CARS

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 25.—(UP)—Undergraduates at Princeton will not be permitted to drive automobiles within the city limits here under a new ruling adopted by the university's trustees.

The regulation is an extension of present rulings which bar students from driving on the campus and forbid use of automobiles in the borough limits by freshmen and sophomores.

SUDDEN DESPATCH OF A VESSEL TO NICARAGUA

IN INTERESTS OF ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS, NO DISPLEASURE EXPRESSED

UNLESS BRITAIN SHOULD LAND TROOPS IN NICARAGUA

By LUDWELL DENNY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 25.—The United States government is surprised and displeased over Great Britain's sudden despatch of a warship to Nicaragua.

In the interest of Anglo-American relations, the state department will not express this displeasure formally unless British troops are landed.

Meanwhile officials hope the British naval commander will decide soon after arrival at Corinto on Feb. 26 that the United States is affording adequate protection to British interests and that his ship is not needed.

Britain's action is interpreted in some quarters here as connected with the negotiations between the Diaz government and the United States for an American protectorate over Nicaragua. Great Britain, with 1,500 citizens there and larger property holdings than the United States, is described as reluctant to accept the protectorate plan.

The immediate effect of Britain's action has been to strengthen the administration's hand here against congressional opposition to its military occupation of Nicaragua.

But uneasiness is apparent over the future effects. The safety of foreigners in Nicaragua cannot be separated altogether from internal politics and intervention, as the Coolidge administration record in Nicaragua shows, according to friends of the administration.

The administration is described as anxious that other foreign nations recognize the United States' ability to protect their legitimate interests without their taking action which might lead to indirect intervention, violating this administration's interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine.

Officials say they are unable to explain the statement in the British notes that absence of American assurances of protection for the British necessitated sending the warship. Secretary Kellogg and Acting Secretary Grew repeat what was pointed out in the American note to Great Britain yesterday that such American protection of British interests was promised and is being provided by the American forces of occupation.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 25.—Further fighting between conservative government troops and insurgent liberals was feared here today. The British cruiser Colombo, en route from the Caribbean to provide a place of refuge for British nationals, was expected to arrive tomorrow.

Activity of liberal troops near Matagalpa was renewed today, leading to reports that the Sacasa army was preparing to attack that important city. American and other foreigners in the city appealed to U. S. Minister Eberhardt and President Diaz for protection.

General Moncada was reported preparing to move from Matiguls, 20 miles from Matagalpa, toward the latter city, expecting to join a large liberal contingent near there for a joint attack.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The Diaz Nicaraguan government's proposal for American protectorate was brought into the open today for the first time when the Nicaraguan legation here announced details of the proposed "treaty of alliance" between the two countries.

Under the Diaz proposal Nicaragua would be guaranteed, according to President Diaz, "the uninterrupted maintenance of a government adequate for the protection of life, property and individual liberty. The U. S., on the other hand, would be assured of its rights to a Nicaraguan canal and naval base, arranged under the Bryan-Chamorro treaty and would have the right from Nicaragua "to intervene in Nicaragua whenever it might be necessary in order to make effective the guarantees effective above."

Among the members of the South Side Ball club are the following: Earl O'Brien, George Bates, Louis Hanson, Lester Peterson, Uddenberg, Sheffo, Ted Stallman, Wallace Stallman, Roy Hegsted and others.

Benefit Dance

On Saturday evening, Feb. 26, there will be a dance at the Finn hall for the benefit of the Girls' Independent basketball team. This dance will be one of the last affairs before Lent, and should be well patronized.

The members of this team are all Brainerd girls, and should receive a generous response from everyone. The proceeds derived from this entertainment are to be used as payment on the snappy suits the girls have ordered. When they next appear before the fans in their most becoming outfits, the donors will feel glad to have helped towards such a cause.

There will be the proper police protection, and a very enjoyable evening is assured for all.

Music will be furnished by the Vikings orchestra.

A New Body Style Reigns in America
Created by Nash

Revealing an alluring French-type rear contour, this ultra-new and arrestingly original body design has now entirely changed American ideas of motor car style.

First exemplified by the new Ambassador and Cavalier models this unique body conception was immediately hailed as the most important creative achievement in the history of American enclosed car craftsmanship.

Today this inimitably distinguished body mode is available in the new Special Sedans just introduced on both the Special Six and Advanced Six chassis at prices of wider popular appeal.

The Special Sedan on the Special Six chassis, colorfully finished in an exquisite new blue tone is pictured above.

The extreme luxury of its interior is emphasized by the gray tufted genuine Chase Velmo Mohair Velvet upholstery, real walnut steering wheel, and select hardware in chaste pattern.

All inside window moldings and door panels are of walnut finish, as is the instrument board and the crowned panel above the instrument board.

The same fittings and appointments grace the larger Advanced Six model and both are powered with the big Nash 7-bearing motor—the world's smoothest type. 4-wheel brakes and 5 disc wheels are standard equipment.

60 ATTEND M. E. CHURCH BANQUET

Mothers of Woman's Missionary Societies Sponsor Banquet to Daughters

STANDARD BEARERS FORMED

Address of Evening Was Given by Mrs. W. C. Culmer, of Duluth

Sixty mothers and daughters sat together at a banquet last evening at the Methodist church given by the mothers of the Woman's Missionary societies to their own and adopted daughters.

An orchestra of twelve pieces from the Ladies band graced the occasion with their presence and rendered delightful selections.

A songfest was conducted by Mrs. C. W. Hemsworth who also sang "Mother Machree."

The address of the evening was given by Mrs. W. C. Culmer of Duluth, who is president of the District. Woman's Foreign Missionary society basing her remarks on "Christ's Three-fold Test of Peter's Loyalty." Mrs. Culmer showed that the Woman's Foreign society now numbers over six hundred thousand members, the largest Woman's Missionary society in the world. It raised over two million dollars per year and maintains seven hundred missionaries in the foreign field besides hundreds of institutions of healing and learning, the statistics are really astonishing. The women of the church are trying to meet Christ's challenge in caring for the needy and spiritually lost in remote parts of the world.

A society of standard bearer girls of the middle and later "teen" year girls was organized with Miss Celeste Johnson of 1824 E. Oak street as president. It was altogether happy and successful event.

BRAINERD 25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

Feb. 24, 1902

D. M. Clark has returned from West Baden, Ind., where he had been recuperating. He looks ten years younger and is the picture of health.

R. L. Georgeson and James Neilson returned this morning from Valley City where they took in a grand ball by the militia company.

Jack Swan, assistant engineer of the M. & I. went out over the line today accompanied by Joe Esmay and George Nevers.

Brainerd won in both games between the St. Cloud Normal school on Saturday night and it was a joyous victory for the pupils of the high school of this city.

The ladies team of the high school of this city won by a score of 9-2 and the gentlemen's team of the high school by a score of 18-16.

The game between the gentlemen of the high school and the gentlemen of the St. Cloud Normal was one of the best that has ever been played in this city. O'Brien of Brainerd distinguished himself for his excellent basket throwing and Sanborn fought like a tiger and did good work in holding down Peterson, the big center of the St. Cloud team. White and Lowey did good team work which was worth the price of admission alone. Boyle also did some good individual playing. The feature of the game however was the throwing of a basket by young Frank Kleeberger of St. Cloud. He stood nearly in the center of the room and made the basket and was the best of the evening.

HEDDA HOYT TELLS OF MOTOR KNICKERS

By HEDDA HOYT

New York, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Motorists beware, lest you fall to heed Dame Fashion's latest style edict. Knicker dresses with skirts slit up the sides displaying cute little matching

Knicker dresses with skirts slit up the sides displaying cute little matching Knicker dresses with skirts slit up the sides displaying cute little matching Knicker dresses with skirts slit up the sides displaying cute little matching side front closing. Usually the frock is belted at a low waist line and the skirt is left open from the belt line to the hem with braid trimming the borders. Knickers are of the same material and color as the frock and are banded just above the knee and finished with buckles at the side. Silk or jersey cloth forms most of these models. The skirt can be snapped together when worn for street purposes. It is thought that these knicker dresses will be popular with women drivers since they allow freedom of motion.

Have you noticed that frosty look some women achieve these cold mornings? It's not due to the weather so much as it is to the frosted felt bonnet. Silver-frosted pastel felt hats matched by frosted boutonnières are worn by many smart women these days, although it is predicted that they will not be as well liked generally as plain felts of better material.

New, too, are violet-trimmed hats. The entire violet turban appears in smart shop windows but to date has not made an appearance on the streets. However, white violets are worn on one side of the black felt hat with a matching bunch of violets worn on the lapel. Some of the latest hats have an extra bunch of violets pinned to them for corsage use.

Little turbans composed entirely of white or purple violets are shown in shop windows.

Having looked over numerous millinery displays one can't see any radical change between hats of this Spring and last. Felt models continue small, draped and simply trimmed. Dressier models combine satin or taffeta. Combinations of materials will be used extensively this season and felt and straw are well represented at smart displays.

The half-a-day man

FOR months he had hated to face it. . . . He was slipping. Losing out. He who once had shown such shining promise! His old-time vigor had gone. Ambition, itself! What had happened? He seemed to grow weary before the day was half-way through! What curse was begging his life?

Constipation blights many a bright career. It destroys initiative. It weakens the body and leads to disease after disease. Yet, constipation can be relieved—safely, permanently. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to give relief!

Why part-bran products are ineffective

Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN because it is 100% bran. They know that 100% bran means 100% results! Here is why:

ALL-BRAN carries through the system moisture which its "bulk" absorbs. And it gently distends the intestines—cleansing, removing wastes. ALL-BRAN contains sufficient "bulk" to perform this work—because it is 100% bran. In a part-bran product the quantity of bulk is too small to be entirely effective.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold with this definite guarantee: Eat it according to directions. If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

One Hundred skilled housewives were asked this question

ONE hundred representative housewives were asked this question: "What has been your experience with beet sugar?"

The replies were positive. Most of them commended Great Western Sugar for every use, particularly for jelly making, canning and preserving.

Consider these experiences:

"I have used Great Western Sugar with much satisfaction. It makes delicious preserves and jellies, and gives the home-baker a feeling of confidence in baking and pride in the finished product."

"I entered four kinds of jelly made with beet sugar at the county fair and won first on them all."

"My jam, which has won first prize for the past two years at our county fair, was made with beet sugar."

Many more than 2,000,000 housewives today are using Great Western Sugar for every purpose. They like it because of its sparkling whiteness, its purity, its uniformity—and most of all, because of its performance!

Your grocer has Great Western Sugar. Ask him for it by name. Judge for yourself!

TILL THE SOIL THAT FEEDS YOU

USING this heading, "Till the Soil That Feeds You", the Crosby Courier calls attention to the need of buying at home. This argument is used:

Mother Earth is mankind's best provider. She produces everything we wear—everything we eat—and everything that shelters us. In brief, Mother Earth has made life possible.

So it is with your city and your merchants. Your success is dependent upon their success. You must support them or they will retrograde. You are to them what the plow is to the field.

In other words, sustain your merchants by buying at home. The good will of the buying public is the goal of the modern seller. Without it they cannot exist.

Back up your merchants and you prosper with them. By boosting the "Buy-at-Home" movement you help to put your community on the map.

TO BE TYPICAL AMERICAN

SINCLAIR LEWIS, novelist, author of "Main Street", who did literary work last year in our Brainerd Lake Region, and who was guest of honor at the film presentation of his "Mantrap" at Pequot, has a son who is to be brought up as a typical American.

He's 12 years old, according to news dispatches, and so far has passed most of his life abroad. And so Mrs. Sinclair Lewis is remaining in New York during the winter to be near the boy, who is being educated in New England, while the novelist is at his literary work in old England.

So far we have seen no new novel of Sinclair and the guesses made that the latest is to have some bearing on evolution and anti-evolution has not materialized.

FINANCES FOR ROAD BUILDING

If it were possible to raise money for road building without collecting it in the form of taxes, very little difficulty would be experienced in raising it. Expenditures for roads should not be thought of as a tax but rather as an investment.

The money expended for the purchase of automobiles is not considered as a tax. Why should the money expended for the road bed upon which to run them be looked upon as a tax? It is a tax only because it must be collected by some subdivision of the government. Money expended for roads will decrease the cost of operating the vehicles over them many times more than the cost of road construction.—Nebraska Highways.

MORE MAIL "BUSINESS"

BRAINERD survived a deluge of knitted ties sent to her people some months ago by some outsider. You examined the ties and if they pleased you, paid for them. If not, you returned them.

Some people may like this kind of merchandising thrust upon them, but we do not. Today townspeople are receiving a flood of handkerchiefs.

As we said before, if you want ties or handkerchiefs, buy them locally.

NEWSPAPER MEN IN PULPITS

WE hesitate to call it evolution, says the Park Rapids Enterprise, and rather incline to the thought of general moral and spiritual improvement among the profession; but it is worthy of note that when the National Editorial association meets in Omaha in June, the pulpits of twenty of the leading churches will be occupied by newspaper men from all parts of the United States. The Omaha preachers should know how to manage their pulpit programs after that event.

HOW TO LESSEN TAXES

RAY P. CHASE, state auditor, gives this plan to lessen taxes: "Less spending, less borrowing, and more publicity are some of the remedies Minnesota taxpayers must use if they are to stop 'piling up' on baby shoulders a mass of interest bearing debts to acquire luxuries which we can't afford, which we haven't paid but which we have not denied ourselves."

THE Parker-Kellogg company, which retrieved deadheads in the Mississippi near Brainerd, is now operating down river. With 300,000 feet of the finest Norway pine already retrieved from the river bottom above the dam at St. Cloud, as a result of last summer's efforts, the Minneapolis company plans to recover some 600,000 feet of lumber this year under favorable conditions. An "orange peel" steam dredge scoops up the logs from the bottom where they have lain submerged for years and rafts are made to take them to the mill site. The lumber is reported of the highest quality and the underwater seasoning has not harmed the log.

GEORGE WASHINGTON was "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen." He was first in so many real, constructive things that we believe the expression, "Let George do it," must have originated in Washington's time.

HENRY FORD, who believes in the conservation of time, money and energy, is now trying to solve the farm problem by condensing the production and harvesting in a farmer's life into 20 days work. Dairying, however, will not permit of such condensation.

MILACA people were aroused the other night by a loud noise resembling a cannon shot or clap of thunder. A bright flash accompanied the noise and those who saw it think it accompanied a meteor, but so far no one has located the meteor.

A SURE sign of spring has arrived in St. Cloud, says the Little Falls Daily Transcript. That city's cedar block paving is humping up in spots—several of them. It is said drivers are getting sea sick traveling over the rolling streets.

self for the presidency in 1928 by doing it. I believe he has made a very great mistake.

Vice President Dawes, who supported the bill, and Chairman McNary of the senate agriculture committee, co-author of the bill, declined to comment.

Rep. Haugen, Rep. Iowa, co-author of the bill, expressed regret at the president's action and indicated strongly that the measure would be revived in the next congress.

Rep. Rankin, Dem., Miss., said: "I wonder when the president came to the conclusion that it was wrong to protect a portion of the American people at the expense of the whole. The same argument he uses in this particular part of his message might also be used in favor of a reduction of the high protective tariff."

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 25.—(UP)—The statement that President Coolidge had vetoed the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill was read in the Iowa house of representatives today and caused considerable adverse comment.

"Good bye Coolidge," Rep. Henry A. Berry, of Monroe county, shouted.

The Iowa house recently adopted a resolution asking the president to sign the measure.

LOWDEN CANDIDACY GETS IMPETUS

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 25.—(UP)—Following bitter denunciations of President's Coolidge veto of the McNary-Haugen bill on the floor of the Iowa legislature today, a spontaneous move was started to nominate Frank O. Lowden as republican presidential candidate in 1928.

Petitions for Lowden were circulated in both houses. The signers averred Lowden was the "only potential candidate who represented the true interests of agriculture."

INCOME TAX COLLECTIONS FOR MARCH GIVEN

Washington, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Income tax collections for March will be much larger this year than the $499,000,000 collected in March, 1926, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon said.

A tentative estimate of income tax receipts for March placed the figure at more than $525,000,000. The treasury warned that the first installment on income taxes due for the calendar year 1926 must be paid on or before midnight March 15 to avoid a penalty.

It is not beyond the realms of possibility that some day there will be offered a newly created six, closely approximating in basic design and price the Pontiac Six as introduced a year ago.

But even if that car does make its appearance, it will lack one powerful inducement to ownership that is of paramount importance in contemplating the Pontiac Six:

Its design and construction will not have been proved by millions

Tired Brain
Tired Nerves
Tired Body

Is it any wonder that digestive organs fail and the heart's action weakens under such strain?

Modern business is carried on at tremendous expense to the nervous system.

So great are the worries and anxieties of business and professional life that the end of the day finds the brain, the nerves, the body, tired and limp. If you could only rest and sleep there would be some chance of replenishing by night the nerve force which is exhausted by day.

But with the nerves on edge you are restless and irritable. You cannot sit still and relax. You must have excitement until finally worn out, a nervous breakdown brings calamity.

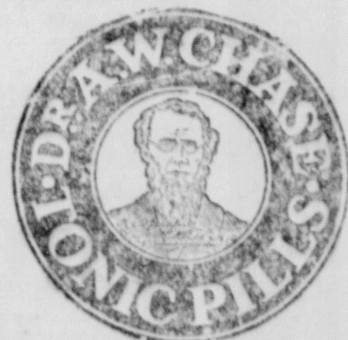

There is a way out of this circle of nervous exhaustion. It is by the use of DR. A. W. CHASE TONIC PILLS. By using DR. A. W. CHASE TONIC PILLS you will soon find yourself sleeping and resting better, digestion will improve and you will forget the tired feeling in your enthusiasm for new health and happiness.

TILL THE SOIL THAT FEEDS YOU

USING this heading, "Till the Soil That Feeds You", the Crosby Courier calls attention to the need of buying at home. This argument is used:

Mother Earth is mankind's best provider. She produces everything we wear—everything we eat—and everything that shelters us. In brief, Mother Earth has made life possible.

So it is with your city and your merchants. Your success is dependent upon their success. You must support them or they will retrograde. You are to them what the plow is to the field.

In other words, sustain your merchants by buying at home. The good will of the buying public is the goal of the modern seller. Without it they cannot exist.

Back up your merchants and you prosper with them. By boosting the "Buy-at-Home" movement you help to put your community on the map.

TO BE TYPICAL AMERICAN

SINCLAIR LEWIS, novelist, author of "Main Street", who did literary work last year in our Brainerd Lake Region, and who was guest of honor at the film presentation of his "Mantrap" at Pequot, has a son who is to be brought up as a typical American.

He's 12 years old, according to news dispatches, and so far has passed most of his life abroad. And so Mrs. Sinclair Lewis is remaining in New York during the winter to be near the boy, who is being educated in New England, while the novelist is at his literary work in old England.

So far we have seen no new novel of Sinclair and the guesses made that the latest is to have some bearing on evolution and anti-evolution has not materialized.

FINANCES FOR ROAD BUILDING

If it were possible to raise money for road building without collecting it in the form of taxes, very little difficulty would be experienced in raising it. Expenditures for roads should not be thought of as a tax but rather as an investment.

The money expended for the purchase of automobiles is not considered as a tax. Why should the money expended for the road bed upon which to run them be looked upon as a tax? It is a tax only because it must be collected by some subdivision of the government. Money expended for roads will decrease the cost of operating the vehicles over them many times more than the cost of road construction. —Nebraska Highways.

MORE MAIL "BUSINESS"

BRAINERD survived a deluge of knitted ties sent to her people some months ago by some outsider. You examined the ties and if they pleased you, paid for them. If not, you returned them.

Some people may like this kind of merchandising thrust upon them, but we do not. Today townspeople are receiving a flood of handkerchiefs.

As we said before, if you want ties or handkerchiefs, buy them locally.

NEWSPAPER MEN IN PULPITS

WE hesitate to call it evolution, says the Park Rapids Enterprise, and rather incline to the thought of general moral and spiritual improvement among the profession; but it is worthy of note that when the National Editorial association meets in Omaha in June, the pulpits of twenty of the leading churches will be occupied by newspaper men from all parts of the United States. The Omaha preachers should know how to manage their pulpit programs after that event.

HOW TO LESSEN TAXES

RAY P. CHASE, state auditor, gives this plan to lessen taxes: "Less spending, less borrowing, and more publicity are some of the remedies Minnesota taxpayers must use if they are to stop 'piling up' on baby shoulders a mass of interest bearing debts to acquire luxuries which we can't afford, which we haven't paid but which we have not denied ourselves."

THE Parker-Kellogg company, which retrieved deadheads in the Mississippi near Brainerd, is now operating down river. With 300,000 feet of the finest Norway pine already retrieved from the river bottom above the dam at St. Cloud, as a result of last summer's efforts, the Minneapolis company plans to recover some 600,000 feet of lumber this year under favorable conditions. An "orange peel" steam dredge scoops up the logs from the bottom where they have lain submerged for years and rafts are made to take them to the mill site. The lumber is reported of the highest quality and the underwater seasoning has not harmed the log.

GEORGE WASHINGTON was "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen," and in addition was first among the road builders of America. He was first in so many real, constructive things that we believe the expression, "Let George do it," must have originated in Washington's time.

HENRY FORD, who believes in the conservation of time, money and energy, is now trying to solve the farm problem by condensing the production and harvesting in a farmer's life into 20 days work. Dairying, however, will not permit of such condensation.

MILACA people were aroused the other night by a loud noise resembling a cannon shot or clap of thunder. A bright flash accompanied the noise and those who saw it think it accompanied a meteor, but so far no one has located the meteor.

self for the presidency in 1928 by doing it. I believe he has made a very great mistake."

Vice President Dawes, who supported the bill, and Chairman McNary of the senate agriculture committee, co-author of the bill, declined to comment.

Rep. Haugen, Rep., Iowa, co-author of the bill, expressed regret at the president's action and indicated strongly that the measure would be revived in the next congress.

Rep. Rankin, Dem., Miss., said: "I wonder when the president came to the conclusion that it was wrong to protect a portion of the American people at the expense of the whole. The same argument he uses in this particular part of his message might also be used in favor of a reduction of the high protective tariff."

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 25.—(UP)—The statement that President Coolidge had vetoed the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill was read in the Iowa house of representatives today and caused considerable adverse comment.

"Good bye Coolidge," Rep. Henry A. Berry, of Monroe county, shouted. The Iowa house recently adopted a resolution asking the president to sign the measure.

LOWDEN CANDIDACY GETS IMPETUS

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 25.—(UP)—Following bitter denunciations of President's Coolidge veto of the McNary-Haugen bill on the floor of the Iowa legislature today, a spontaneous move was started to nominate Frank O. Lowden as republican presidential candidate in 1928.

Petitions for Lowden were circulated in both houses. The signers averred Lowden was the "only potential candidate who represented the true interests of agriculture."

GRAND FINALE OF B. H. S. BASKETBALL

BRAINERD GIRLS TO PLAY THE FAST MOTLEY TEAM

BRAINERD WON FIRST TILT,
TO 2. LOST SECOND,
10 TO 9

BOTH TEAMS BATTLE FOR FIN-
AL HONORS TOMORROW
NIGHT

Tomorrow night will see the grand finale of the local high school basketball season when the B. H. S. girls' team will be featured against the fast Motley aggregation.

The Brainerd girls won the first tilt from them this year by a score of 7-2 and last Saturday night were defeated by their opponents, 10-9. With each having a victory and defeat, both teams will battle for final honors.

The game will close the high school playing history of four girls who have served the Blue and White during their entire course in high school and are: Grace Alzant, Alta Storm, Marian Liners, Helen Beggs. For the first time in Brainerd history, a referee from out of town will officiate in the person of Miss Peterburg, an instructor at the C-I. high school.

Motley is bringing a large aggregation of rooters and it is the hope of Coach Reinertson and the team that a large crowd will turn out to offset the visitors.

The preliminary game will be played between the second team boys and the Crosby second team. The local squad defeated the range quint on their own floor earlier in the season and the latter team will be out for revenge.

The preliminary game starts at 7:30 o'clock.

'SWEDE' RISBERG WILL NOT PLAY WITH ROCHESTER

Faribault, Minn., Feb. 24.—(UP)—With the announcement that "Swede" Risberg, late of the national baseball scandal, will not play with the Rochester club this year, fans of southern Minnesota look forward to the formation of a strong league with at least six team members.

"If the league is organized this year, it is possible that Rochester would be a member as it is understood that 'Swede' Risberg is through there," declared Tom Quinn, president.

"The league has not wanted Risberg in its membership," Quinn continued, "and undoubtedly Rochester would have been a member of the Southern Minnesota league for several years past had it not been that they wished to play Risberg."

Quinn indicated that it was his desire to get six good teams in the circuit since four teams did not hold the interest of the fans and it was not possible to get more than six teams.

While the president did not indicate what towns would be represented in the new organization, it was understood they would be the following: Albert Lea, Mankato, Rochester, Belle Plaine, Owatonna and Faribault.

Fairmont and New Prague are also said to be clamoring to get into an air-tight association and it is known that Fairmont particularly could put a strong club into the field. Swearingen, former Hamline college star, with Mert Meixell and Carl Mickelson are said to be ready to sign with a Fairmont team. All three men are well known to southern Minnesota baseball followers and would form the skeleton for a creditable crew.

Albert Lea is said to have had a full of playing independently for some season past and is now anxious to get under the benevolent shelter of an association. There is plenty of native talent there, which if gathered into the fold, may carry the town into leadership or near the top. Among the pastimers within call are Chuck Wortman, Eddie Fredette, Carl McDowell, Swede Boyd, Bud Johnson, Mike O'Leary and Buddy Shannon.

Owatonna too has a nice representation of material with the following among the more prominent lights: Earl Marion, Seymour Erdman, Eddie Paukert, Bailey Soukup, Walter Bruzek, Jack Springer, Bill and Ferd Guse.

There will be no lack of talent here if Faribault decides to enter competition with the Southern Minnesota group. Among those here or near here are: Paul Reynolds, Howard Whitver, Louis Stransky, Al Morris, Earl Gayee, Jimmy Quinlan, Harold Norvold, Charles McKeuzie, Joe Doe and Louis Orue.

RAINBOWS ACCEPT FLYING ACES DEFY TO DECIDE HONORS

RAINBOWS WILLING TO MEET
ACES, HAVE MET BEST
IN STATE

The Rainbows have come back at the Flying Aces' challenge for a championship game with a hearty acceptance, and the game will be played on Tuesday night, March 1st, at the high school gym.

Manager Peterson, in an interview late last night, stated: "The Rainbows have met the best there is in the state this season, and have not held back from any game. Why should we be afraid to meet the Flying Aces? We'll take them on for the game, and let the fans take their choice of the champions after the game is over. I am confident that that champion will be no other than the Rainbows team."

The Flying Aces are rehearsing for the game, and will be out to test their basketball skill and valor against the onslaughts of the Rainbows. Manager Swede Erickson said this morning, "Just because the Rainbows were first in the field is no sign they're the best. My boys are going to show the fans of this town some real basketball, and we'll let the fans pick the team they want to crown the champs."

Betting odds favor the Rainbows at present, but by game time it is expected that the outcome will be a toss-up. Manager Peterson promises the fans a surprise next Tuesday night. Rivalry is keen and presages a big turnout for the game. Tickets will go on sale tomorrow.

The Methodist Intermediates failed to appear on the scene of conflict for their game with the Finnish Lutherans. An all-star aggregation stepped into the breach and played the Finnish team, winning by a score of 10 to 8. Ottelin, Hendrickson, Schuetty, Gabiou and Laitala each scored a field goal for the winners, while Heikkinen with two baskets, Bakkinen with one, and Gulland and Bakkinen with a free throw apiece made the counters for the losers.

E. J. MALONEY, "DYNAMITE JIM," IN HOME LIFE

IN HIS OWN DOMICILE, PUGILIST
IS JUST "GENTLE
JIMMY"

INDUSTRIOUSLY WIELDING THE
VACUUM CLEANER TO PAR-
LOR CARPET

By HENRY MINOTT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Boston, Feb. 25.—In the ring, Edward James Maloney, pugilism's latest sensation, may deserve the nickname, "Dynamite Jim."

In the home, he's just gentle Jimmy.

Jack Delaney's conqueror is one young man (he is only 23) for whom domestic duties and the boxing business are not incompatible. The only indication of "dynamite" in big Jim's make-up when a reporter called at his home was the industrious manner in which South Boston's pride was applying a vacuum cleaner to a parlor carpet.

Apparently a little abashed at being surprised in such a task, the 200-pound-plus heavyweight hoped explained:

"I know you will excuse me. I have just been tidying up a bit. It may sound funny for a boxer, but I actually enjoy housework."

In his fastidiously-furnished living room, Maloney flopped upon an overstuffed divan and, without so much as a split infinitive, began to talk in the carefully-chosen language of the Tunney school of pugilism.

"You probably want to know what I do when I am not in the ring," suggested Big Jim, who has been interviewed before. "Well, I enjoy hunting. I like roughing it in the woods of Maine and New Hampshire, and hunting provides the excuse for doing so."

"Once I tried to be highbrow and learn to play golf. I didn't make out very well and do not enjoy the game. When I was in the army I played football. I still like football."

"To be perfectly frank, however, next to boxing I like housework best. I enjoy putting around the house, washing dishes, sweeping floors and picking up after the children."

Jim pointed with pride to his two children—Clair, who will be three in June, and Ruth, who will celebrate her first birthday next month. Clair did not enter the conversation except on one occasion. This was to point to her father's much discolored right eye and remark:

"See what Jack Delaney did to my daddy."

She seemed more than proud of her pugilistic father's souvenir of last Friday's battle in Madison Square Garden.

"My family thinks that I am some fighter," Maloney laughed. "You can't tell them that the next heavyweight champion won't be Jim Maloney. Personally, I do not think they will be disappointed. I think I will be obliged to participate in only two more bouts—with Jack Sharkey and Jack Dempsey—before I have an opportunity to meet Gene Tunney."

"I already have disposed of the German, Italian and Swedish champions, and also the world's light heavyweight champion, and I think I have convinced most people that I am 'there.'"

"I shall be glad to fight it out with anyone who questions my right to a chance at the championship. Jim Maloney has climbed the ladder to fistie fame almost as rapidly as did Paul Berlenbach, erstwhile Astoria assassin. Until two and a half years ago, South Boston's idol never had donned boxing gloves for business purposes."

Stecher Defeats Hansen
Washington—Joe Stecher, heavyweight wrestler, tossed Charlie Hansen, Minnesota, two falls out of three. Stecher won both with scissor holds, one in 31 minutes and the other in less than 60 seconds. Hansen won the second fall in 11 minutes, with a headlock. Stecher will wrestle Wladek Zbyszko, another claimant to the title, here March 7.

FLOOR

A large number of basketball fans left today on the chartered bus, in cars and on the train for Crosby, accompanying Coach Beresford and the Brainerd high school team on its last foreign conference game, to be played with Crosby-Ironton this evening.

Among the players were Lowe, DeRocher, Captain Fitzharris, Orth, Guin, Wise, Hautala and Barnes. Crosby-Ironton defeated the Little Falls team last night, 42-14, and though the Brainerd quint is in the pink of condition, the large floor and "the strongest team in the district" may prove fatal to their chances of victory.

The C-I. cagers have administered one defeat to the locals this season and the Blue and White will use its last ounce of energy to turn the tables on the range team.

N. Y. BOXING COMMISSION DROPS CASE

UNABLE TO FIND EVIDENCE
STRONG ENOUGH TO PROSECUTE

ALL INVOLVED IN TICKET DIS-
TRIBUTION SUMMONED
TO APPEAR

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 25.—Inability of the New York boxing commission to find evidence strong enough to prosecute suspects will cause the investigation of the big Maloney-Delaney ticket scandal to die peacefully on the table today.

All of those involved in the distribution of box office tickets were summoned to appear again today before the commission but it was admitted before the meeting by an influential member of the board that slim hope was entertained of getting any information that would lead to prosecution of anyone.

"We know," one member of the commission said, "that there was some speculation in tickets for the Maloney-Delaney fight but I am of the personal opinion that serious efforts were made to keep tickets out of the hands of speculators and that there were less speculation on that fight than on some others that have been held.

"As long as there are those who are willing to buy tickets from speculators there will be speculation and it can't be stopped. It can be curbed, however. I know personally of one case where a prominent young banker paid $750 for a box of nine seats and of another wealthy young business man who paid $150 for a pair of seats in row S. I told them we never could hope to stop speculation as long as men of their type paid so much money for tickets and they told me they didn't care and that they weren't squawking.

"We received other complaints and upon investigation we learned that the complaints came from chronic squawkers, who couldn't pay the box office price if they got places in the first row.

"We could do something to intimidate the speculators, at least, if we could get the information but those who have the information will not give it to us."

It was intimated that a suggestion would be made to promoters that no seats be assigned to the managers of boxers. Allotment of tickets to managers has been an important factor in the making of even minor matches.

"We know of cases," it was said further, "where a manager would pass out a handful of tickets to a boxer or manager who needed money or to someone under whom he was under obligation, the inference being that the recipient could make himself a little money by selling the tickets for a profit. In that way the tickets pass through two or three channels with a corresponding increase in price. We think we can stop that."

Investigation proved that many of the tickets in the hands of New York speculators were tickets that had been turned over to Dan Carroll, Maloney's manager, but it was intimated that the commission doesn't hold Carroll "criminally guilty" if at all.

New York, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Paolino, Spanish heavyweight and the claimant of the European heavyweight championship, was an eight to five favorite to defeat Knute Hansen tonight in the second number of Tex Rickard's elimination tournament.

Because of his size and strength more than an imposing record and because Hansen has the reputation of being shy in fighting spirit, Paolino was expected to win by a knockout, the critics figuring that Hansen would be sure to win on points if the bout went the limit.

Paolino's future as a championship fighter depends largely upon the size of his victory. If he wins quickly and impressively, Rickard plans to match him with Jim Maloney, who eliminated Jack Delaney and then match the victor in the Jack Sharkey-Mike McGigue match, which is to be staged next week.

Although they do not have to make weight, the two fighters will have to go through the formality of weighing in at 2 o'clock before the boxing commission. The commission also wants to give Paolino's hand a thorough examination to circumvent a recurrence of Delaney's alibi that he went into the Maloney bout with an injured elbow.

GRAND FINALE OF B. H. S. BASKETBALL

BRAINERD GIRLS TO PLAY THE FAST MOTLEY TEAM

BRAINERD WON FIRST TILT,
TO 2, LOST SECOND,
10 TO 9

BOTH TEAMS BATTLE FOR FIN-
AL HONORS TOMORROW
NIGHT

Tomorrow night will see the grand finale of the local high school basketball season when the B. H. S. girls' team will be featured against the fast Motley aggregation.

The Brainerd girls won the first tilt from them this year by a score of 7-2 and last Saturday night were defeated by their opponents, 10-9. With each having a victory and defeat, both teams will battle for final honors.

The game will close the high school playing history of four girls who have served the Blue and White during their entire course in high school and are: Grace Alzant, Alia Storm, Marian Liners, Helen Beggs. For the first time in Brainerd history, a referee from out of town will officiate in the person of Miss Peterburg, an instructor at the C-I high school.

Motley is bringing a large aggregation of rooters and it is the hope of Coach Reinertson and the team that a large crowd will turn out to offset the visitors.

The preliminary game will be played between the second team boys and the Crosby second team. The local squad defeated the range quint on their own floor earlier in the season and the latter team will be out for revenge.

The preliminary game starts at 7:30 o'clock.

'SWED' RISBERG WILL NOT PLAY WITH ROCHESTER

Faribault, Minn., Feb. 24.—(UP)—With the announcement that "Swede" Risberg, late of the national baseball scandal, will not play with the Rochester club this year, fans of southern Minnesota look forward to the formation of a strong league with at least six team members.

"If the league is organized this year, it is possible that Rochester would be a member as it is understood that 'Swede' Risberg is through there," declared Tom Quinn, president.

"The league has not wanted Risberg in its membership," Quinn continued, "and undoubtedly Rochester would have been a member of the Southern Minnesota league for several years past had it not been that they wished to play Risberg."

Quinn indicated that it was his desire to get six good teams in the circuit since four teams did not hold the interest of the fans and it was not possible to get more than six teams.

While the president did not indicate what towns would be represented in the new organization, it was understood they would be the following: Albert Lea, Mankato, Rochester, Belle Plaine, Owatonna and Faribault.

Fairmont and New Prague are also said to be clamoring to get into an air-tight association and it is known that Fairmont particularly could put a strong club into the field. Swearingen, former Hamline college star, with Mert Meixell and Carl Mickelson are said to be ready to sign with a Fairmont team. All three men are well known to southern Minnesota baseball followers and would form the skeleton for a creditable crew.

Albert Lea is said to have had a fill of playing independently for some season past and is now anxious to get under the benevolent shelter of an association. There is plenty of native talent there, which if gathered into the fold, may carry the town into leadership or near the top. Among the pastimers within call are Chuck Wortman, Eddie Fredette, Carl McDowell, Swede Boyd, Bugh Johnson, Mike O'Leary and Buddy Shannon.

Owatonna too has a nice representation of material with the following among the more prominent lights: Earl Marion, Seymour Erdman, Eddie Paukert, Bailey Soukup, Walter Bruzek, Jack Soukup, Bill and Ferd Guse.

There will be no lack of talent here if Faribault decides to enter competition with the Southern Minnie group. Among those here or near here are: Paul Reynolds, Howard Whitver, Louis Stransky, Al Morris, Earl Gayes, Jimmy Quinlan, Harold Norvold, Charles McKenzie, Joe Dee and Louis Orne.

RAINBOWS ACCEPT FLYING ACES DEFY TO DECIDE HONORS

RAINBOWS WILLING TO MEET
ACES, HAVE MET BEST
IN STATE

The Rainbows have come back at the Flying Aces' challenge for a championship game with a hearty acceptance, and the game will be played on Tuesday night, March 1st, at the high school gym.

Manager Peterson, in an interview late last night, stated: "The Rainbows have met the best there is in the state this season, and have not held back from any game. Why should we be afraid to meet the Flying Aces? We'll take them on for the game, and let the fans take their choice of the champions after the game is over. I am confident that that champion will be no other than the Rainbows team."

The Flying Aces are rehearsing for the game, and will be out to test their basketball skill and valor against the onslaughts of the Rainbows. Manager Swede Erickson said this morning, "Just because the Rainbows were first in the field is no sign they're the best. My boys are going to show the fans of this town some real basketball, and we'll let the fans pick the team they want to crown the champs."

Betting odds favor the Rainbows at present, but by game time it is expected that the outcome will be a toss-up. Manager Peterson promises the fans a surprise next Tuesday night. Rivalry is keen and presages a big turnout for the game. Tickets will go on sale tomorrow.

The Lutheran Juniors won out by a nose over the Presbyterians last night, 2 to 1, in the closest game played in the Sunday school league so far. Halvorson made the lone basket for the winners, while Anderson scored from the free throw line for the losers.

The Methodist Intermediates failed to appear on the scene of conflict for their game with the Finnish Lutherans. An all-star aggregation stepped into the breach and played the Finnish team, winning by a score of 16 to 8. Ottelin, Hendrickson, Schuett, Gabion and Lahtala each scored a field goal for the winners, while Heikkinen with two baskets, Bakken with one, and Gulland and Bakken with a free throw apiece made the counters for the losers.

E. J. MALONEY, "DYNAMITE JIM," IN HOME LIFE

IN HIS OWN DOMICILE, PUGILIST
IS JUST "GENTLE
JIMMY"

INDUSTRIOUSLY WIELDING THE
VACUUM CLEANER TO PAR-
LOR CARPET

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Boston, Feb. 25.—In the ring, Edward James Maloney, pugilism's latest sensation, may deserve the nickname, "Dynamite Jim."

In the home, he's just gentle Jimmy. Jack Delaney's conqueror is one young man (he is only 23) for whom domestic duties and the boxing business are not incompatible. The only indication of "dynamite" in big Jim's make-up when a reporter called at his home was the industrious manner in which South Boston's pride was applying a vacuum cleaner to a parlor carpet.

Apparently a little abashed at being surprised in such a task, the 200-pound-plus heavyweight hoped to explain:

"I know you will excuse me. I have just been tidying up a bit. It may sound funny for a boxer, but I actually enjoy housework."

In his fastidiously-furnished living room, Maloney flopped upon an overstuffed divan and, without so much as a split infinitive, began to talk in the carefully-chosen language of the Tunney school of pugilism.

"You probably want to know what I do when I am not in the ring," suggested Big Jim, who has been interviewed before. "Well, I enjoy hunting. I like roughing it in the woods of Maine and New Hampshire, and hunting provides the excuse for doing so."

"Once I tried to be highbrow and learn to play golf. I didn't make out very well and do not enjoy the game. When I was in the army I played football. I still like football."

"To be perfectly frank, however, next to boxing I like housework best. I enjoy putting around the house, washing dishes, sweeping floors and picking up after the children."

Jim pointed with pride to his two children—Clair, who will be three in June, and Ruth, who will celebrate her first birthday next month. Clair did not enter the conversation except on one occasion. This was to point to her father's much discolored right eye and remark:

"See what Jack Delaney did to my daddy."

She seemed more than proud of her pugilistic father's souvenir of last Friday's battle in Madison Square Garden.

"My family thinks that I am some fighter," Maloney laughed. "You can't tell them that the next heavyweight champion won't be Jim Maloney. Personally, I do not think they will be disappointed. I think I will be obliged to participate in only two more bouts — with Jack Sharkey and Jack Dempsey—before I have an opportunity to meet Gene Tunney."

"I already have disposed of the German, Italian and Swedish champions, and also the world's light heavyweight champion, and I think I have convinced most people that I am 'there.'"

"I shall be glad to fight it out with anyone who questions my right to a chance at the championship. Jim Maloney has climbed the ladder to fistie fame almost as rapidly as did Paul Berlenbach, erstwhile Asporia assassin. Until two and a half years ago, South Boston's idol never had donned boxing gloves for business purposes."

Stecher Defeats Hansen
Washington—Joe Stecher, heavyweight wrestler, tossed Charlie Hansen, Minnesota, two falls out of three. Stecher won both with scissor holds, one in 31 minutes and the other in less than 60 seconds. LAST CONFERENCE GAME WITH C-I

TO BE PLAYED TONIGHT ON THE

FLOOR

A large number of basketball fans left today on the chartered bus, in cars and on the train for Crosby, accompanying Coach Beresford and the Brainerd high school team on its last foreign conference game, to be played with Crosby-Ironton this evening.

Among the players were Lowe, DeRocher, Captain Fitzharris, Orth, Guin, Wise, Hautala and Barnes.

Crosby-Ironton defeated the Little Falls team last night, 42-14, and though the Brainerd quint is in the pink of condition, the large floor and "the strongest team in the district" may prove fatal to their chances of victory.

The C-I cagers have administered one defeat to the locals this season and the Blue and White will use its last ounce of energy to turn the tables on the range team, there were less speculation on that

N. Y. BOXING COMMISSION DROPS CASE

UNABLE TO FIND EVIDENCE
STRONG ENOUGH TO PROSECUTE

ALL INVOLVED IN TICKET DIS-
TRIBUTION SUMMONED
TO APPEAR

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Feb. 25.—Inability of the New York boxing commission to find evidence strong enough to prosecute suspects will cause the investigation of the big Maloney-Delaney ticket scandal to die peacefully on the table today.

All of those involved in the distribution of box office tickets were summoned to appear again today before the commission but it was admitted before the meeting by an influential member of the board that slim hope was entertained of getting any information that would lead to prosecution of anyone.

"We know," one member of the commission said, "that there was some speculation in tickets for the Maloney-Delaney fight but I am of the personal opinion that serious efforts were made to keep tickets out of the hands of speculators and that there were less speculation on that fight than on some others that have been held.

"As long as there are those who are willing to buy tickets from speculators there will be speculation and it can't be stopped. It can be curbed, however. I know personally of one case where a prominent young banker paid $750 for a box of nine seats and of another wealthy young business man who paid $150 for a pair of seats in row S. I told them we never could hope to stop speculation as long as men of their type paid so much money for tickets and they told me they didn't care and that they weren't squawking."

"We received other complaints and upon investigation we learned that the complaints came from chronic squawkers, who couldn't pay the box office price if they got places in the first row."

"We could do something to intimidate the speculators, at least, if we could get the information but those who have the information will not give it to us."

It was intimated that a suggestion would be made to promoters that no seats be made to the managers of boxers. Allotment of tickets to managers has been an important factor in the making of even minor matches.

"We know of cases," it was said further, "where a manager would pass out a handful of tickets to a boxer or manager who needed money or to someone under whom he was under obligation, the inference being that the recipient could make himself a little money by selling the tickets for a profit. In that way the tickets pass through two or three channels with a corresponding increase in price. We think we can stop that."

Investigation proved that many of the tickets in the hands of New York speculators were tickets that had been turned over to Dan Carroll, Maloney's manager, but it was intimated that the commission doesn't hold Carroll "criminally guilty" if at all.

New York, Feb. 25. — (UP) — Paolino, Spanish heavyweight and the claimant of the European heavyweight championship, was an eight to five favorite to defeat Knute Hansen tonight in the second number of Tex Rickard's elimination tournament.

APRON SOCIAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Evening at First Congregational Church Opened With Community Singing

LED BY AL. DILLAN

Varied Program Presented With Many Pleasing Features

A large crowd attended the apron social given last evening in the First Congregational church.

The evening opened with community singing led by Al. Dillan accompanied by Mrs. Louis Knutsen.

"The Toilers" was performed cleverly by a group of women from Circle No. 1 who took the parts of various working men throughout the city with the exception of one who took the part of a telephone operator.

Miss Jessie Tillquist rendered two pleasing vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. Knutsen which was followed with an "overture" by Circle No. 2. This performance was highly amusing, an orchestra of ladies garbed in male formal attire played on instruments ranging from frying pans to bugles.

"Loves Contract" was unusually interesting. Presented by Circle No. 3 it depicted a wedding scene, with bride, bridegroom, bridesmaids, etc. The gowns of the bridesmaids ranged from a deep orange to white and ribbons were stretched down the aisles of the church. The bride towering several feet above the poor groom created much merriment.

Dr. G. I. Badeaux sang three beautiful selections accompanied by Mrs. Walter F. Wieland.

"The Measuring stunt" performed by W. F. Wieland assisted by George Sweet proved that J. A. Wilson had the most correct waistline. Others who were measured were D. E. Whitney, W. W. Bane, Mrs. W. C. Cobb, Mrs. G. S. Swanson. Mrs. Carl Zapffe favored the listeners with a pianologue after which "The Pillar of the Church" was given by Circle No. 4. It was a clever little skit wherein a group of members of the ladies aid were gathered together when the minister and also a book agent visited them. All the performers took their part in a pleasing, quaint and old fashioned manner. A lunch and social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program.

Criticizes Washington's Farewell Address

St. Paul, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Washington's famous Farewell Address was "a campaign document for the approaching election," and was not intended as a permanent guide for the foreign policy of the United States, Henry M. Wriston, president of Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis., told the Minnesota society of the Daughters of the American Revolution Thursday night. "The Farewell address is a great document," Dr. Wriston said, "one that may fairly be said to 'belong to the ages,' but it is one that is frequently abused and misunderstood.

"Washington's doctrine of diplomatic isolation, expounded in his address, rested upon three salient facts: First, Europe was the world of international relations; second, we stood apart by ourselves; third we were in no condition, by reason of political immaturity, economic instability, and smallness of size, to play a leading or aggressive part. The validity of the doctrine was certain to be impaired whenever those factors changed."

All these factors have changed today, Dr. Wriston pointed out. "The United States of 1789 was not yet a nation. Today it is a nation in the fullest sense. There is no longer a question whether we shall remain one people. That question came to its dramatic climax in 1861. The new government of Washington's day is today one of the two governments in the whole world which have not been overthrown or reorganized by revolution since that time. The United States had not in Washington's day, fully vindicated its diplomatic independence. Today she is free to 'choose peace or war as our interests, guided by the principle of justice, shall counsel.'

"From being a debtor in default, and in economic disorder we have become the greatest creditor nation in the history of the world. In a single decade we have moved from the position of the largest borrower in history to that of the largest lender.

"Europe was the world of 1789. Since then a new world has come into being. We no longer have a pressing demand for expansion of territory and the United States stands now as the leader of the American continents.

"Finally, the geographic position of the United States no longer invites us to go it alone. From a position on the fringe of the world, we have come to stand at its center, the only world power facing both the Atlantic and the Pacific. The Panama Canal has become the Fifth Avenue and the Forty-Second Street of world commerce.

"These bonds that now attach us to the fate of Europe and Asia are not the 'artificial' ties that Washington deplored. They are the natural and inevitable ties of an integrated world.

APRON SOCIAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Evening at First Congregational Church Opened With Community Singing

LED BY AL. DILLAN

Varied Program Presented With Many Pleasing Features

A large crowd attended the apron social given last evening in the First Congregational church.

The evening opened with community singing led by Al. Dillan accompanied by Mrs. Louis Knutsen.

"The Toilers" was performed cleverly by a group of women from Circle No. 1 who took the parts of various working men throughout the city with the exception of one who took the part of a telephone operator.

Miss Jessie Tillquist rendered two pleasing vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. Knutsen which was followed with an "overture" by Circle No. 2. This performance was highly amusing, an orchestra of ladies garbed in male formal attire played on instruments ranging from frying pans to bugles.

"Loves Contract" was unusually interesting. Presented by Circle No. 3 it depicted a wedding scene, with bride, bridegroom, bridesmaids, etc. The gowns of the bridesmaids ranged from a deep orange to white and ribbons were stretched down the aisles of the church. The bride towering several feet above the poor groom created much merriment.

Dr. G. I. Badeaux sang three beautiful selections accompanied by Mrs. Walter F. Wieland.

"The Measuring stunt" performed by W. F. Wieland assisted by George Sweet proved that J. A. Wilson had the most correct waistline. Others who were measured were D. E. Whitney, W. W. Bane, Mrs. W. C. Cobb, Mrs. G. S. Swanson.

Mrs. Carl Zapffe favored the listeners with a pianologue after which "The Pillar of the Church" was given by Circle No. 4. It was a clever little skit wherein a group of members of the ladies aid were gathered together when the minister and also a book agent visited them. All the performers took their part in a pleasing, quaint and old fashioned manner. A lunch and social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program.

Criticizes Washington's Farewell Address

St. Paul, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Washington's famous Farewell Address was "a campaign document for the approaching election," and was not intended as a permanent guide for the foreign policy of the United States, Henry M. Wriston, president of Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis., told the Minnesota society of the Daughters of the American Revolution Thursday night.

"The Farewell address is a great document," Dr. Wriston said, "one that may fairly be said to 'belong to the ages,' but it is one that is frequently abused and misunderstood."

"Washington's doctrine of diplomatic isolation, expounded in his address, rested upon three salient facts: First, Europe was the world of international relations; second, we stood apart by ourselves; third we were in no condition, by reason of political immaturity, economic instability, and smallness of size, to play a leading or aggressive part. The validity of the doctrine was certain to be impaired whenever those factors changed."

All these factors have changed today, Dr. Wriston pointed out. "The United States of 1789 was not yet a nation. Today it is a nation in the fullest sense. There is no longer a question whether we shall remain one people. That question came to its dramatic climax in 1861. The new government of Washington's day is today one of the two governments in the whole world which have not been overthrown or reorganized by revolution since that time. The United States had not in Washington's day, fully vindicated its diplomatic independence. Today she is free to 'choose peace or war as our interests, guided by the principle of justice, shall counsel.'

"From being a debtor in default, and in economic disorder we have become the greatest creditor nation in the history of the world. In a single decade we have moved from the position of the largest borrower in history to that of the largest lender."

"Europe was the world of 1789. Since then a new world has come into being. We no longer have a pressing demand for expansion of territory and the United States stands now as the leader of the American continents."

"Finally, the geographic position of the United States no longer invites us to go it alone. From a position on the fringe of the world, we have come to stand at its center, the only world power facing both the Atlantic and the Pacific. The Panama Canal has become the Fifth Avenue and the Forty-Second Street of world commerce."

"These bonds that now attach us to the fate of Europe and Asia are not the 'artificial' ties that Washington deplored. They are the natural and inevitable ties of an integrated world."

PAVED ROADS

DEMONSTRATE VALUE

Paved roads are demonstrating their value this week, to judge by the weekly condition report of the Minnesota Highway department issued today.

South of a line drawn from Duluth to Moorhead thawing weather has affected all the unpaved roads. Some of the heavily traveled roads are still reported good, but many of the unpaved routes are reported as either fair or poor, broken up due to the thawing, more or less rough and rutted. All are passable, however, except No. 59 from Lake City to Zumbro Falls, which is still snow blocked.

North of the Duluth-Moorhead line conditions are about the same as a week ago, several routes in the Red River valley being snow-blocked but the open routes being nearly all good.

Detailed reports of conditions on the so-called Babcock roads follow, insofar as they refer to the Brainerd Lake Region:

T. H. No. 2 — Duluth, Brainerd, Wadena, Detroit Lakes and Moorhead—264 miles—Duluth, paved—Carlton, good—McGregor, fair—Aitkin, fair—Brainerd, fair—Wadena, good—Detroit Lakes, open—Moorhead.

T. H. No. 18—Elk River, Milaca and Brainerd—102 miles—Elk River, good—Princeton, fair—Garrison, fair—Brainerd.

T. H. No. 19—Brainerd, Walker and Cass Lake—97 miles—Fair.

T. H. No. 27 — St. Cloud, Little Falls and Brainerd—65 miles—Paved, good.

WOMEN'S MISSION CIRCLE MEETING

First Baptist Church Women Entertained at Luncheon at Home

HOME BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED

Honor 50th Anniversary of Women's
American Baptist Home
Mission Society

The members of the Women's Mission Circle of the First Baptist church entertained at an afternoon luncheon, February 23, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Cody. The affair was in honor of the 50th anniversary of the Women's American Baptist Home Mission society.

The reception room, dining-room and sun-parlor were beautifully decorated with many golden chued flowers in honor of the occasion. When all the guests had assembled, the program, which was in charge of Mrs. Henry Olson, commenced with several songs, composed by Mrs. Walter M. Murphy and sung to the tunes of some of the popular music.

The ladies of the Mission Circle explained some of the fifteen projects which are to be advanced by apportionments from the Golden Anniversary offering of $500.000, which the Women's Home Mission society expects will have been raised by March 15, 1927.

A few of those projects which were mentioned are: a Mexican Christian Center at Phoenix, Arizona, where the Society is hoping to build another unit and bring the gospel of Christ to many Mexicans in that locality; a Community House for the Hopi Indians at Tereva, Arizona; a new dormitory for the Mather School, Beaumont, S. C., where negro girls are fitted for Christian service in their own community; a new building to replace the one recently destroyed by fire, and new equipment at the Kodiak Baptist Orphanage, Wood Island, Alaska; and an endowment fund to extend Christian Americanization work.

At the close of these talks, pencils and golden leaves were distributed, on which the ladies were requested to write from memory as many of these golden projects as possible.

The prize was awarded to Miss Rebecca Cassell, and consisted of a box of Golden Nuggets, lemon drops.

After the program, a delicious luncheon was served, the golden color scheme being observed throughout. All present reported the occasion an unusually helpful and enjoyable one.

SCHOOL BOARD BUYS PROPERTY

Thomas McIntyre Property Purchased; Lies Directly West of
Lincoln School

PURCHASE AMOUNT, $3,000

Primary Classes Will be Reopened in Three Sections of City
in March

The Brainerd Public School Board has authorized the purchase of the Thomas McIntyre property which lies directly west of the Lincoln school building for the purpose of additional school property and additional playground facility for the Lincoln school. The cost of the property will be $3,000.

This action was taken by the board on the recommendation of the special committee appointed to look into the matter. The finance committee were directed to enter into negotiations and upon the approval of the city attorney the officers of the Board were authorized to sign a school warrant for $3,000 for payment of the property.

Primary class will begin in three sections of the city in March, the same as last year, provided there are sufficient number of children of proper age to warrant the opening of a room. It is planned to hold the classes at the Lowell, Washington and Whittier school buildings.

The board authorized the expenditure of $25 for the purchase of dishes at the Washington school. It was reported that during the cold days an average of 100 pupils took their lunches to school.

Permission was granted to make apparatus for track and field meets in the manual training department at the high school. An appropriation of $50 was set aside for the cost of the lumber.

The finance committee reported having audited the books of the treasurer for the quarter ending October 31, showing the books to be correct.

The teachers committee reported the employment of Miss Frances Johnson to the high school to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Miss Gladys Lohr, and the employment of Miss Virginia Ellason as director of art.

The secretary was directed to advertise for bids from incorporated banks for depositories of Brainerd school district funds, proposals to be received and opened at the regular meeting of the board in March.

The secretary was instructed to sign the petition for the extension of the water main at the Garfield school building.

WOMEN'S MISSION CIRCLE MEETING

First Baptist Church Women Entertained at Luncheon at Home of Mrs. R. E. Cody

HOME BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED
Honor 50th Anniversary of Women's
American Baptist Home
Mission Society

The members of the Women's Mission Circle of the First Baptist church entertained at an afternoon luncheon, February 23, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Cody. The affair was in honor of the 50th anniversary of the Women's American Baptist Home Mission society.

The reception room, dining-room and sun-parlor were beautifully decorated with many golden chrysanthemums in honor of the occasion. When all the guests had assembled, the program, which was in charge of Mrs. Henry Olson, commenced with several songs, composed by Mrs. Walter M. Murphy and sung to the tunes of some of our popular music. The secretary of the ladies of the Mission Circle explained some of the fifteen projects which are to be advanced by apportionments from the Golden Anniversary offering of $500,000, which the Women's Home Mission society expects will have been raised by March 15, 1927.

A few of those projects which were mentioned are: a Mexican Christian Center at Phoenix, Arizona, where the Society is hoping to build another unit and bring the gospel of Christ to many Mexicans in that locality; a Community House for the Hopi Indians at Tova, Arizona; a new dormitory for the Mather School, Beaufort, S. C., where negro girls are fitted for Christian service in their own community; a new building to replace the one recently destroyed by fire, and new equipment at the Kodiak Baptist Orphanage, Kodiak Island, Alaska; and an endowment fund to extend Christian Americanization work.

At the close of these talks, pencils and golden leaves were distributed, on which the ladies were requested to write from memory as many of these golden projects as possible.

The prize was awarded to Miss Rebecca Cassell, and consisted of a box of Golden Nuggets, lemon drops.

After the program, a delicious luncheon was served, the golden color scheme being observed throughout. All present reported the occasion an unusually helpful and enjoyable one.

SCHOOL BOARD BUYS PROPERTY

Thomas McIntyre Property Purchased; Lies Directly West of
Lincoln School

PURCHASE AMOUNT, $3,000

Primary Classes Will be Reopened in Three Sections of City
in March

The Brainerd Public School Board has authorized the purchase of the Thomas McIntyre property which lies directly west of the Lincoln school building for the purpose of additional school property and additional playground facility for the Lincoln school. The cost of the property will be $3,000.

This action was taken by the board on the recommendation of the special committee appointed to look into the matter. The finance committee were directed to enter into negotiations and upon the approval of the city attorney the officers of the Board were authorized to sign a school warrant for $3,000 for payment of the property.

Primary classes will begin in three sections of the city in March, the same as last year, provided there are sufficient number of children of proper age to warrant the opening of a room. It is planned to hold the classes at the Lowell, Washington and Whittier school buildings.

The board authorized the expenditure of $25 for the purchase of dishes at the Washington school. It was reported that during the cold days an average of 100 pupils took their lunches to school.

Permission was granted to make apparatus for track and field meets in the manual training department at the high school. An appropriation of $50 was set aside for the cost of the lumber.

The finance committee reported having audited the books of the treasurer for the quarter ending October 31, showing the books to be correct.

The teachers committee reported the employment of Miss Frances Johnson to the high school to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Miss Gladys Lohr, and the employment of Miss Virginia Eliason as director of art.

The secretary was directed to advertise for bids from incorporated banks for depositories of Brainerd school district funds, proposals to be received and opened at the regular meeting of the board in March.

The secretary was instructed to sign the petition for the extension of the water main at the Garfield school building.

Matinee Ladies

BY
William B. Courtney

Copyright 1927, Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.
"MATINEE LADIES," with May McAvoy, is a Warner Bros. picture-ization of this novel.

SYNOPSIS

Bob Ward, a poverty-stricken engineering student in his senior year, who is working his way through college by whatever jobs he can get at the college employment bureau, is informed by his two chums, Freddy and Arch, that they have found an easy and profitable way to earn money—by working as dancing partners, of afternoons, for rich women in a fashionable New Jersey roadhouse. Bob thinks it isn't a fit way to make a living. His landlady threatens him with eviction for unpaid rent.

As the door slammed behind Mrs. O'Sully, Bob's eyes, full of trouble rested upon the faces of his chums.

"Now you've got to take the job, Bob!" exclaimed Freddy and Arch in unison. "Come on, be a sport. If you don't come, some one else will!"

Bob gulped hard. Pride went down with that gulp—pride and honest conviction. Expediency took a hard fall out of his self-respect; even so, there was a lot of courage and aloofness, in his manner as he said quietly: "Lead me to your damned old inn. Henceforth, I'm a dancing partner for matinee ladies, young and old—at fifty per cent!"

"Now you're talking like an intelligent and sensible college senior. If not a human being, should talk!" chorled Freddy, while Arch, as his outward show of joy at Bob's acceptance of the job, bounced a heavy engineering tome on Bob's head.

This precipitated a rough and years of grinding and scrimping on University Heights was in his hands. His very own, to have and to hold. Dearly won, fondly cherished.

Four years! Would he ever forget them? Four years in which had been bred enough wonderful memories to last four lifetimes. It was too bad that at the end the press of poverty had weighed down so heavily upon him that he had to accept work, at variance with his ideals. Yet, the ends justify the means. Ideals, after all, are something borne aloft, safe and serenely remote from whatever mud and rocks one must wade through to reach the Shining Banner toward Life's goal.

Perhaps if he would go to some of his firm friends among the professors, they would manage to aid him to a finer job. They might get the Employment Bureau to bend special efforts in his behalf. But, no. He had been to the faculty members, who were his friends as well as his teachers in the spirit of this dear old place, and they had helped him to the limit of their means. The Employment Bureau had put many things in his way. As a star football player, and also as a young man of finest, cleanest traits and a brilliant engineering student, Bob was widely popular through the undergraduate body and highly regarded by the faculty. But there was a limit, naturally enough, to the sort of temporary improvement the Bureau could provide. And while it got jobs that sufficed for the average student working his way through, while it offered the most sympathetic and helpful co-operation, the Bureau could not quite make up for Bob Ward's case, because it was peculiar and quite out tumble shindy, which brought Mrs. O'Sully back into the room post haste with an indignant threat to eject all three boys, bag and book, on grounds of social undesirability, let alone financial.

Mrs. O'Sully was appeased. Then Bob asked dubiously:

"When do I start on my—err—career as a male butterfly for the delectation of the idle female rich?"

"Right away—pronto—if not sooner," declared Arch. "This afternoon. That's the only time we work. See what a cinch of a job it is? These rich and jazzy janes tell their trusting husbands—who are probably keeping a couple of chorus girls apiece on a string!—that they attend the matinees. Then they skip out to nearby roadhouses and jazz joints, of which our Palisado Inn is a noteworthy example, and dance the afternoons away with young guys like us. Some of the bolder ones go to hotels in town to dance, but the most of them want secrecy, and like the outlying places."

"Where is the place that I—will work?"

"Over on the Palisades. We'll beat it down to 12th street and take the Fort Lee ferry. Then it's only a short ride on a bus. But come on now, get a wiggle on, old left tackle, or we'll be late for the matinee. And the red hot mamas don't like to wait for their pretty little college boys!"

"Grr-r darn!" gritted Bob, disgusted at the sophisticated irony in his chum's description of the job and the people.

CHAPTER II

But now Bob Ward was committed to a job as dancing entertainer. He couldn't hedge. The wolf was too close. His college degree meant more to him than anything else in the world. It was within his grasp. Just a few short weeks of careful study and planning and management. It would be a burning shame if his poverty were to push the sheepskin away from his boning fingers, at this last spurt. Regardless of the cost in humbled pride, he must earn enough to keep him clear of debt and disaster until the coveted reward of four long of the usual run of working student situations.

Bob Ward, as superlative a football player as the famous old prep school of Dean Academy, in Franklin, had ever sent thundering toward the enemy goal lines, might have found things made easy for him in the way of scholarships at many a famous college if he had been so minded. But in Bob's old head on young and wide shoulders, football remained always subordinated in its rightful place—as a passing, if exciting and useful, phase of school years. Bob's objective in life lay far beyond the white gridiron lines, the crossbars of autumn fields. It lay on difficult Andean summits, on far-flung Yangtze gorges, on remote Australian mining wastes. All hitherto inaccessible until reduced to the everyday ken of mankind by his engineering genius. So Bob Ward dreamed. And so to him, not the acclaim of crowds out for a Saturday afternoon Roman Holiday, but the hard-earned, hard-won, high scholastic standing was what counted. Regardless of all other factors, he had selected the college that seemed best fitted to his circumstances, to his plans, and to his ambitions for a sound and thorough drilling in the fundamentals of his profession. Two years running he earned a scholarship, in competitive examination, by dint of mental, not football, powers. Then piling complications upon him until his work fell below its wonted grade, and threatened to disrupt his college career.

Troubles at home that required the donation of all the five hundred dollars reserve his father had been able to give him. Deaths of his mother, his father. A bitter junior year of scrimping and saving, denying himself fraternity memberships and all the material joys of undergraduate life; fighting until a few dollars had been hoarded in the bank again.

Then, two months ago, more trouble at home. A widowed sister killed in an accident; her orphan needing financial assistance. Out went the meagre bank account. In the full generosity of Bob's heart, (To be continued.)

FLAPPER ADMITS KILLING LOVER

"THEY CAN'T GET ME" IS THE FLIPPANT RETORT MADE

Chicago, Feb. 25.—(UP)—A red-headed and rather pretty 22-year-old girl today received reports that the state would ask her death for murder with a flippant, "They can't get me."

She is Miss Florence Stokes who has admitted killing James Glennon, a former lover, when he told her their affair was at an end. She contends she was the "woman wronged" and that she killed the man she loved to keep him from another woman.

"Why, I'll beat this case easily; why should I worry if the state asks the death penalty?" she asked.

"He handed me the gun and told me to shoot myself," she continued.

"So what could I do but shoot him?" There were indications she would later plead in self-defense on the basis that he sufficed with her and that the gun was accidentally discharged.

15 YEAR DAUGHTER OF JUSTICE MAHONEY HAS DISAPPEARED

New York, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Kasia Mahoney, 15-year-old daughter of Supreme Court Justice Jeremiah T. Mahoney, prominent member of Tammany hall, was reported missing from her home.

Although the girl, it was said, disappeared after she started for her classes in a parochial school on Monday, her family thus far has maintained secrecy.

A "confidential" police alarm has been sent out to other cities. Callers at the Mahoney home were refused information.

New York, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Miss Kasia Mahoney, 15 year old daughter of Supreme Court Justice Mahoney, has been found at Cohoes, N. Y., a message received at police headquarters said today.

The girl had been missing since Monday morning when she left her Madison avenue home, presumably for school.

Chief of Police King of Cohoes sent a brief telegram to Police Commis-

Chicago, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Using a rapier like left to good advantage, Bud Taylor, Terre Haute, Ind., claimant to the world's bantam-weight title, had little difficulty in disposing of Eddie Shea of Chicago last night.

Shea scored well in the second round with hard lefts and rights but after that Taylor presented a dazzling offense, shooting a straight left and a right cross repeatedly at Shea. Although the fight went the 10-round limit, Shea was badly beaten and his eyes were both swollen almost shut when the fight ended.

In the ten round semi-windup, Dave Shade, California middleweight who is coming back after having been forced out for almost a year with illness, gave a boxing lesson to Wolcott Langford, negro of Chicago.

Shade unleashed a heavy attack in only one round, the second, Wolcott spending most of that round on the mat, having been knocked down several times. He took the count of nine once. After that one round Shade eased up and boxed with Langford.

It was one of the best crowds to have attended a fight in Chicago since the boxing bill was re-legalized more than a year ago. The Coliseum was packed and the gate receipts totalled more than $40,000.

stoner McLaughlin of New York saving Miss Mahoney was in his custody. She is being held in the upstate city to await the arrival of New York detectives, who were sent immediately.

Sore Throat

Stopped in 15 Minutes

No longer will it be necessary to gargle or to choke with nasty tasting patent medicines to relieve sore throat. One swallow of a famous physician's prescription called Thoxine is guaranteed to relieve within 15 minutes. Kills the germs, far superior to gargles.

Thoxine does not contain iron, chloroform or dope. It has a pleasant taste and is harmless and safe for children. Sold under money-back guarantee of quick relief. 35c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Skauge Drug Co. and all good drug stores. —Adt

"Run Down?" You Need Stimulation

This Scientific Method Renews Vitality and Nerve Force

The whole energy and vitality of the body depend on what you get out of your food. If the glands of your digestive organs are not doing their work properly, you are bound to feel "run down," tired all the time, with no ambition and no enjoyment in life.

Scientific stimulation of the glands of your stomach and mouth and other vital organs will bring back vigor to your whole system.

A remarkable stimulant- tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic." Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wineglass full before your next meal—see how much better you eat—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy. —Adv

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Menthosulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Rowles Menthosulphur may be obtained at any drug store. —Adv

Holding Out

Husband—Are you aware, my dear, that it takes three-fourths of my salary to pay the grocer?

Wife—Goodness! What do you do with the rest of your money?—Progressive Grocer.

The Sole Survivor

Kind Old Lady—So you are the sole survivor of a shipwreck! Tell me how you came to be saved.

Wayfarer—Well, you see, I changed my mind on sailin' day.

Round About

"I say, old chap, didn't I borrow $5 of you last week?"

"No, you didn't."

"How careless of me. Could you let me have it now?"

SMELLED A RAT

"Why did that woman look so much like a cat when her husband came in?"

"I think she smelled a rat."

Aviator's Wife's Joy

The aviator's wife is strange. In one way, no doubt, Her heart rejoices when she sees Her husband down and out.

Methodical

"Aviators appear to be pretty modest fellows."

"They probably appreciate the truth of the saying: 'Pride goes before a fall.'"

Probably the Reason

"Maude and Filbert have separated."

"I can't understand modern life. Why, their house was furnished with loving cups."

Covetous

"My wife never knows what she wants."

"Mine does; it is anything our neighbors have that we can't afford."

Wrong Person

Irate Father—I distinctly saw you kiss my daughter under my very nose.

Suitor (calmly)—No sir—under her very nose.

Proof Enough

"How do you know that's a telephone girl that Jiggs is waiting on?"

"Because he said 'Hello' and she didn't answer."—Progressive Grocer.
